ALEXANDER'S COLLECTION UNVEILS "THE FORBIDDEN CITY": A MODERN REIMAGINING OF ART DECO AND IMPERIAL CHINOISERIE

Hong Kong — [March 6, 2026] — Alexander's Collection is proud to announce its latest masterpiece: the "The Forbidden City" collection. Drawing inspiration from the architectural majesty of the Imperial Palace in Beijing, this range offers a bold interpretation of Art Deco fused with the timeless elegance of reimagined Chinoiserie.

It bridges the gap between the structured geometric glamour of the 1920s and the delicate motifs of traditional Chinese art, meticulously adapted for the most sophisticated modern interiors.

Imperial Craftsmanship & Modern Materials

"The Forbidden City" utilizes an exquisite palette: hand-polished black lacquer, intricate ebony carvings, and bespoke brass inlays. Every element is a modern homage to ancient luxury, ensuring that each piece is not just furniture, but a functional art object on a museum level.

"We wanted to capture the essence of a hidden sanctuary," says Alex Sander, Founder of Alexander's Collection. "It is an architectural narrative of power and beauty."
